No person receiving such documents shall, directly or indirectly, transfer, disclose, or communicate in any way the contents of the documents to any person other than those specified in paragraph 4. Prohibited purposes include, but are not limited to, use for competitive purposes or the prosecution of additional intellectual property rights.

4. Access to any Confidential document shall be limited to:

- (a) the Court and its officers;
- (b) Attorneys and their office associates, legal assistants, and stenographic and clerical employees;
- (c) persons shown on the face of the document to have authored or received it;

- (f) inside counsel, paralegals and legal assistants for defendants Pfizer Inc. and Boehringer Ingelheim Pharmaceuticals, Inc.
- (g) outside independent persons (i.e., persons not currently employed by, consulting with, or otherwise associated with any party) who are retained by a party or its attorneys to furnish technical or expert services, or to provide assistance as mock jurors or focus group members or the like, and/or to give testimony in this action.

5. The parties shall have the right to further designate Confidential documents or portions of documents as “Confidential - Attorneys’ Eyes Only.” Disclosure of such information shall be limited to the persons designated in paragraphs 4(a), (b), (c), (e), (f) and (g). Such documents may also be disclosed to deponents or witnesses who are current employees of the party who produced the documents, or to deponents or witnesses who are past employees or consultants of the party who produced the documents, provided such past employees or consultants have signed the “Written Assurance” document attached hereto as Exhibit “A.”

6. Third parties producing documents in the course of this action may also designate documents as “Confidential” or “Confidential - Attorneys’ Eyes Only,” subject to the same protections and constraints as the parties to the action. 7. Each person appropriately designated pursuant to paragraph 4(g) to receive Confidential information shall execute a “Written Assurance” in the form attached as Exhibit “A.” Opposing counsel shall be notified at least 10 days prior to disclosure to any such person who is known to be a current employee of any competitor of the party whose designated documents are to be disclosed. Such failure shall be corrected by providing written notice of the error and substituted copies of the inadvertently produced documents. Any party receiving such inadvertently unmarked documents shall make reasonable efforts to retrieve documents distributed to persons not entitled to receive documents with the corrected designation.

10. Any party who inadvertently discloses documents that are privileged or otherwise immune from discovery shall, promptly upon discovery of such inadvertent disclosure, so advise the receiving party and request that the documents be returned. The receiving party shall return such inadvertently produced documents, including all copies, within 10 days of receiving such a written request. The party returning such inadvertently produced documents may thereafter seek reproduction of any such documents pursuant to applicable law.

12. Any party may request a change in the designation of any information designated Confidential and/or Confidential - Attorneys' Eyes Only. Any such document shall be treated as designated until the change is completed. If the requested change in designation is not agreed to, the party seeking the change may move the Court for appropriate relief, providing notice to any third party whose designation of produced documents as Confidential and/or Confidential - Attorneys' Eyes Only in the action may be affected. The party asserting that the material is Confidential shall have the burden of proving that the information in question is within the scope of protection afforded by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c).

13. Within 60 days of the termination of this action, including any appeals, each party shall either destroy or return to the opposing party all documents designated by the opposing party as Confidential, and all copies of such documents, and shall destroy all extracts and/or data taken from such documents. Each party shall provide a certification as to such return or destruction within the 60-day period. Attorneys shall be entitled to retain, however, a set of all documents filed with the Court and all correspondence generated in connection with the action.

14. Any party may apply to the Court for a modification of this Protective Order, and nothing in this Protective Order shall be construed to prevent a party from seeking such further provisions enhancing or limiting confidentiality as may be appropriate.

15. No action taken in accordance with this Protective Order shall be construed as a waiver of any claim or defense in the action or of any position as to discoverability or admissibility of evidence.

16. The obligations imposed by this Protective Order shall survive the termination of this action. Within 60 days following the expiration of the last period for appeal from any order issued in connection with this action, the parties shall remove any materials designated Confidential from the office of the Clerk of Court.
